Hanover Team Victors in Championship Game With Richmond College.

CLOSE AND HARD FOUGHT TERRIFIC DRIVE AT FINISH

Ashland Rooter With Megaphone Does Valiant Service for Visitors.

The base-ball team of Randolph-Macon College yesterday defeated Elöhmond Col-lege, their old athletic rivals, in a prettily played and well contested game. This was the first of the championship games between the two, and was played at Broad Street Park before a small but enthusiastic crowd. The Richmond boys yelled loyally for the team, but toward yeined loyally for the team, but toward the end of the game a youngster from Ashland, with a pair of leather lungs, with a megaphone attachment, put the Richmond College boys to silence with cries, with which they sought to encour-age the team when victory seemed pos-sible.

Richmond went first to but, and Harrell made a bad start, letting Snead and Robertson walk and hitting Miles. Dunaway's safety scored Snead, but Robertson was thrown out at the plate by Walters. For Randolph-Maccin, Handolph led on with a corking double to lett, Lipscomb sacrificed him to third, and he scored on Brent's hit, gitter Walters had popped up one to Miles.

Went Down Quickly. Went Down Quickly.

Richmond went down, one, two, three, in the second, Harrell throwing Talman out at first, Randolph seezing Sutherland's fly to short left, and Martin hiting into Newman's mit at first. Randolph-Macon started well, but failed to maerialize. Newman sent one safe to left, which Gresham might have gotten, and Löwry's sofeaming two-bagger was quickly fielded, and Richardson threw Newman out at the plate. Schenck sacrificed Lowry to third on his drive to Sutherland, left Lowry.

Richmond again went down in one, two, three order in the third, Richardson going out, pitcher to first, Shöad on a fly to Lipscomb, and Robertson from Randolph was safe on Gresham's fallure to handle his hot bounder, Lipscomb struck out and Walters went out on a fly to Robertson. Frent's cracking three-nagger scored Randolph with his team's scored run. Suther and Suthers and Suther Randolph was safe on Lipscomb's error. Gresham was thrown out, trying to steal third, and Talman's bunt was well handled and thown New-

Joy in Local Camp.

Joy in Local Camp.

Richmond made a great rally in the fifth, and when Harrell had great down three red-legs had counted, edusing great enthusiasm in the local camp, where the boys shouted like old-time Methodists. Sutherland started the fifth with his accidental bunt, Martin got in the game and laced one out to right field for a base, and Richardson fanhed. Snead walked, and the bags were full. Webertson sent a fly to Nowman, but Miles's safe crack to right tallied Sutherland and Martin Gresham followed with a single, scoring Snead. Then Harrell settled down, and Dunaway went out on a fly to Duke. Randolph-Macon scored one in its half. Randolph leading off with a single and stealing second. He scored a moment later on Sutherland's error, after Talman had thrown Lipscomb out at first. Brent went out, second to first, and Newman on a fly to Talman.

In the sixth Talman fanned. Sutherland sent a pop fly to their and Martin emulated Talman's bad example. The yellowisches then proceeded to get in the game with both hands and feet. After Lowry had struck out, Schenck singled and took third on Gresham's fumble of Harrell's drive, the latter being safe. Randolph entered the latter being safe. lery at the Battles Around Spotsylvania Courthouse. The meding was well attended, and The meding was well attended, and commander Sullivan dispatched the regular business in short order, so that the distinguished speaker and Confederate officer might be heard.

Colonel Cutshaw called attention to the fact that he was speaking on the forthist anniversary of the first of the series of these battles, but the one he most vividity and particularly described was that frought on May 18th.

The lecture abounded in interesting personal recollections of the battle, and at times Colonel Cutshaw grew cloquent in his tributes to the courage of those who participated.

He complimented the bravery of the men who fought on both sides, and said when they entered the struggle thry were already veterans indeed. Colonel Cutshaw had before him a map showing his positions of the two armies, and he correctness of most of his statistics was based upon records gathered from the Speaker was often applauded by his hear-ors. "The Lamp of Chivalry." "The Lamp of Chivalry."

A delightful hour is in store for those who attend the lecture this evening at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall by Rev. Lee, G. Crutchheld.

The ladies have been fortunate in securing this young orator, thus insuring the success of the benevolent object for which they are laboring. Mr. Crutchfield, now a student at Randolph-Macon College, is a native of this city and was for years one of the foremost debaters in the well known "Randolph Literary Society."

The subject of his lecture, "The Lamp of Chivairy," a theme of Southern patriotism, is one of wide scope and gives ample room for the display of the rare ample room for the display of the rare genius and brilliant oratory of the young speaker.

Services at West View. Rovival services are being conducted at West View Paptist Church this week. Rev. Frank Beale, of King and Queen, is preaching for Dr. Mercer, and is being heard by large and deeply interested con-gregations. The services continue all the week.
